

SAP - SAP EHS Management - Essentials and Functions (EEF)

Code:	SUS310-v096
Length:	3 days
URL:	View Online

Skills Gained

- This course will prepare you to understand and use the specific terms and objects used with the specification database, the phrase management and the reporting.

Who Can Benefit

- Participants who want to familiarize themselves with the basic functionalities of SAP EHS Management
- Project team members of an SAP EHS Management implementation project

Prerequisites

- Essential:
 - SAP129 SAP Navigation
 - or equivalent knowledge of SAP navigation
- Recommended:
 - None

Course Details

Course Content

- Overview of SAP EHS Management
- The central specification database and explanations of terms used
- The specification workbench including navigation and data entry
- Support for data maintenance and increased efficiency via copying, referencing and inheritance of specification data
- Tools to edit mass data and to determine secondary data
- Indicated data research via queries and hit lists
- Enhanced options for search and output
- Phrase management – a precondition for using specification database
- Prerequisites for SAP EHS Management reporting, use of report templates and report generation variants
- Several activities in the Report Management

Notes

- This class is not in itself sufficient for an implementation consultant
- This class is a prerequisite for other SAP EHS Management level 2 and level 3 courses. It is recommended that an applicable level 2 course is taken in conjunction with this course.

Course based on software release

- SAP ERP 6.0 EhP4 and SAP EHS Regulatory Content 2010-1a
-